Music this Sunday

Our anthem for the first Sunday after Easter will be one of the most beloved spirituals, "My Lord What a Mornin'" which we will sing standing in an open circle in the middle of the congregation. This is a beautiful and challenging arrangement, incorporating gorgeous jazz harmonies. Since following all the special Holy Week music we will only have the hour before service to rehearse it, I was a little hesitant to schedule this right away - but when we read through it quickly together on Easter morning just before the start of service, everyone was very excited by the arrangement, and so we vowed to share it with you this week.
