Music this Sunday

We are especially blessed this morning to have our own Sophia Hoffer-Perkins sing for us again the song she sang at her presentation about the Occupy Philly movement after church this past Fall. It speaks deeply to the continuing ideals of that movement, and everyone who heard it wanted to be sure the whole congregation had a chance to be inspired again.

The anthem after the sermon is a setting of a contemplative text by the late Henri Nouwen, composed for Dean Judy's installation in October 17, 2010 by Tom Lloyd, and performed on that occasion by the Cathedral Singers and the Church of the Redeemer Choir.

OUTREACH MINISTRY

The beginning of the new year is the perfect time to clean out your cabinets and food pantry of those non-perishable food items that have not yet expired, but you would like to give away. Please bring these items the next time you attend church. The Cathedral's Outreach Ministry had 10 participants in its first Christmas Cookie Exchange! The remaining donated cookies were then sold to the attending congregation for a total of $103. Thank you so much for everyone's participation.

If you have any unwanted and/or unused gift cards, even with small balances, please consider donating them to the Outreach Ministry!

Thank you for your ongoing support of the Cathedral's outreach ministries which are so vital many who are in need.

SAVE THE DATES

SUNDAY, JANUARY 15

The Annual Meeting of the Cathedral Congregation will take place following the 10 a.m. Eucharist. All members of the Congregation are invited and encouraged to attend and participate as we review the previous year and look forward to important ministries and initiatives in 2012.

CANDLEMAS EUCHARIST

SUNDAY, JANUARY 29 AT 4 p.m.

Join us as we celebrate an afternoon Eucharist commemorating the Feast of Presentation of Christ in the Temple often known as Candlemas Day. Sacred music by Zoltán Kodály, Victor Kalinnikov, Maurice Duruflé and Peter Phillips will be sung by the Cathedral Singers.
